Dear and bereaved editorial staff of the Romanian Courier,

On behalf of the staff of the Romanian Embassy in Stockholm and my staff, I have the mission sad to convey to the bereaved family, colleagues and friends of the publication Curierul Românesc our sincere condolences on the occasion of the passing of Silvia Viorica Constantinescu.

I had the honor and pleasure of personally meeting Mrs. Silvia Viorica Constantinescu with the occasion of my previous mandate in Stockholm and I know that he was a heard and respected voice in the Romanian community in Sweden and in the diaspora, that it contributed in an important way to promoting the Romanian language, culture and spirituality in the Scandinavian space and represented for many an ethical and moral landmark, of high journalistic professionalism.

I was impressed with its quality humane, by his sharp pen, as well as by the exemplary manner in which he felt he had to defend The truth.

Rest in Peace and Light!

Sincerely,

Ambassador Daniel IONIȚĂ
